

The Role of Institutions in Underpinning Inclusive Economic Growth in South Africa

Wednesday 14th October 2015

Venue: The Daisy Room (Conferencing Centre) @ the Radisson Blu Hotel Sandton, Johannesburg

SEMINAR AGENDA

- 09h00-10h00 Registration
10h00 Welcome & Introduction: Morné Oosthuizen
- 10h10 – 12h40 Morning Session Chair: Anthony Black
- 10h10 Macroeconomic Policy in South Africa since 1994: Kenneth Creamer
10h30 Discussion
- 10h40 The Political Economy of Natural Resources: A Comparison of South Africa and South Korea:
Ross Harvey
11h00 Discussion
- 11h10 Group Photo
11h20 Refreshments
- 11h40 The Developmental State: Lessons From South Korea's Development Experience: William Gumede
12h00 Discussion
- 12h10 Institutions & Development SA: Lessons from South Korean Experience: Ebrahim-Khalil Hassen
12h30 Discussion
- 12h40 Lunch (Foyer, Conference Centre)
- 13h30 – 15h00 Afternoon Session Chair: William Gumede
- 13h30 From Service Delivery to Public Service: The Role of the South African State in Providing Public Services: Steven Friedman
13h50 Discussion
- 14h00 Korea's 'Developmental State' and its Political & Institutional Underpinnings: Brian Levy (via SKYPE)
14h20 Discussion
- 14h30 Institutionalising Inclusive Growth in South Africa: Antony Altbeker
14h50 Discussion
- 15h00 Wrap up and Way Forward: Morné Oosthuizen
15h30 CLOSE