ANNUAL CONFERENCE 2018

UN(DER)EMPLOYMENT, INEQUALITY AND THE YOUTH IN AFRICA

15 JUNE 2018

BELMONT SQ CONFERENCE CENTRE, CAPE TOWN, SOUTH AFRICA

Africa is home to some of the highest rates of inequality in the world. Can the labour market be a solution to this crisis? How can we better understand the un(der)employment - inequality nexus and explore effective and scalable solutions for Africa, especially among young people?

To explore these the University of Cape Town Graduate School of Development Policy and Practice (GSDPP) is hosting the International Inequalities Institute Annual Conference. Leading thinkers, including Prof. Ernest Aryeetey, Hilma Mote, Prof. Carlos Lopes, Prof. Ruth Hall and Hon. Prof. Trevor Manuel will be discussing solutions to address inequality in Africa.

Session themes include Labour markets and youth in Africa with a key focus on youth, Pathways to Inclusive African Development: industrialisation and agriculture and New ideas and solutions.

Save the date for this critical conference on inequality, un(der)employment and the labour market hosted by the University of Cape Town's Graduate School of Development Policy and Practice (GSDPP) in partnership with the London School of Economics and the Atlantic Fellows for Social and Economic Equity.

A Welcoming session will be held from 18h30 on 14 June 2018, where the Action for Equity Award will be awarded to recognise the crucial work being undertaken by civil organisations, campaign groups, and activists to combat inequalities.
